

By the King.

Hereas there is lately published in Print our Apologie heretofore made for the Oath of Allegiance, enioyned by Acte of Parliament to all our Subjects in certaine cases, With a Premonition in our Name dedicated to all Christian Princes and States; Which Booke, by the rashnesse of the Printer, and error of the Examiner, is come forth vncorrected of some faults varying from the Originall Copie, and Which doe not a little peruert the sense: Like as We disclaime from all the Copies published before the date hereof, as adulterate, and set out contrary to our expresse Commandement to the Printer giuen: So our Will and pleasure is, and We doe hereby straitly charge and command all our Subjects, and all others within our Realme, to whose handes any of the sayd Bookes be come, that they doe presently, and without delay, bring in all such Bookes as they haue, to our Printer; from whence they shall haue other Copies for the same, corrected to the trueth. And that hereof they faile not, as they will answer to the contrary at their perill.

Giuen at our Palace of Westminster, the seuenth day of Aprill, in the seuenth yeere of our Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland.
